

STATE FACTSHEET

Michigan

2017

At the Carriage House Apartments in Adrian, Michigan, lead was detected in apartment units' drinking water above the EPA Action Level. Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) coordinated a multi-agency response to ensure protection of public health. It was determined lead was from the fixtures, which will be replaced with certified lead-free fixtures.